Dear Supporter,

First of all, thank you! Your interest in Grapevine Group's proven safeTALK and ASIST program already means the Mackay region is another step closer to making our community a suicide-safer place to live, work and play.

Thanks to our wonderful partnership with Run For MI Life, and the support from Mackay Community Foundation, we are able to provide your organisation with lifesaving safeTALK and ASIST training.

Special mention, too, to LivingWorks – the organisation which has developed these programs and supports Grapevine Group in delivering a simple yet effective suicide prevention training with excellent resources for participants. Read more about their programs at <http://www.livingworks.com.au>

ASIST is (Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training) is a two-day interactive workshop in suicide first-aid. It teaches participants to recognise when someone may be at risk of suicide and work with them to create a plan that will support their immediate safety and link them with the help they need.

ASIST can be learned and used by everyone – as long as they are aged 16 or older. That means anyone in your workplace could be trained to have the skills they need to save someone from suicide. This is recognised as the world's leading suicide intervention workshop and is scientifically proven to reduce suicidality for those at risk.

The safeTALK program is something every member of your staff can have access to – empowering your workforce to know what to do, and how to have the conversation, when someone is at risk of suicide.

During the three-hour safeTALK course, you will learn how to become more alert to the prevention opportunities and offer help. You will explore why invitations for help are often overlooked, share helpful resources and services in your community, learn to link people at risk with suicide first aid help, and know how to keep yourself and others safe. In doing all of this, you are giving hope and helping to empower a community: You are part of the solution!

So, how can we help?

Grapevine Group can deliver safeTALK training to everyone in your business or organisation. In addition, for organisations with 15 people or more, we can provide the comprehensive ASIST training to key members of your crew. This is something you should make well known in your business because these are the people trained to respond if a member of the team needs help or is concerned for one of their workmates.

What does ASIST (Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training) offer participants?

ASIST is a FREE two-day interactive workshop in suicide first-aid. ASIST teaches participants to recognise when someone may be at risk of suicide and work with them to create a plan that will support their immediate safety and link them with further help if required.

Although ASIST is widely used by healthcare providers, participants don't need any formal training to attend the workshop — ASIST can be learned and used by everyone. That means just about anyone aged 16 or older can learn the skills to intervene and save someone from suicide. Professionals as well as members of the broader community have all found great value in ASIST.

ASIST is recognised as the world's leading suicide intervention workshop and is scientifically proven to reduce suicidality for those at risk. A 2013 study that monitored over 1,500 suicidal callers to crisis lines found that callers who spoke with ASIST-trained counsellors were 74% less likely to be suicidal after the call, compared to callers who spoke with counsellors trained in methods other than ASIST. Callers were also less overwhelmed, less depressed, and more hopeful after speaking with ASIST-trained counsellors.

About Grapevine Group

The Grapevine Group Assoc Inc is a locally-founded community group which delivers suicide prevention training and awareness in the Mackay region. To date, our organisation has proudly trained over 4,000 people in our community.

Suicide is still considered a taboo subject and surrounded by stigma and shame which often prevents people from seeking assistance or discussing the issue. It is very hard for media to report on suicide, leaving many people to hear of a tragedy along the 'gossip grapevine'. This means they're not hearing about the resources available to them. By funding the public through free safeTALK suicide prevention training Grapevine Group is working to change that.

To raise awareness Grapevine also promotes the list of local suicide prevention resources online and on printed Help-a-mate cards which assists the Mackay region to find help. You can find the list at www.grapevinegroup.org.au or you can visit a Help-a-mate Hub near you to collect your Help-a-mate cards.

Grapevine Group has operated since 2004, and is a registered charity. The group is operated by volunteers from within our local community and relies on community support for its fundraising which is put back into suicide prevention programs and initiatives in our region. If you would like to donate, volunteer, or learn more about prevention training contact secretary@grapevinegroup.org.au

At present Mackay has a higher than average suicide rate but, with your support, we believe we can become the most suicide-safe region in Australia.
